-Cotton was easier in Liverpool, yesterday, but prices were unchanged. -Scotch plaids are now manufactured in

Fanny Fern's salary from the Ledger is five thousand dollars per annum. -A direct European importation company is talked of in Richmond, Va. -Next season short dresses are to be worn on all occasions, with the exceptions of balls. -Excessively bell-crowned hats are threatened in Paris next spring.

-Brigham Young is reported to be paying his addresses to a young Gentile named Annett Ince, an actress. -Sun-dried oysters, cured like beef, by hanging in the sun, are becoming an important article of traffic in California. -Matilda Heron has concluded to devote her entire attention to the instruction of young ladies for the highest rank of the drama. -It is feared that Gottschalk, the pianist was a victim of the recent earthquake in South America. -"Brick" Pomeroy is delivering temperance addresses in New York. He says he never drank a glass of liquor nor was he ever in a bar-room. -New Orleans is yet in want of money, and note-shavers discount the certificates of indebtedness, in which poor school-teachers are paid, at 50 per cent. The New York Citizen, recently owned and edited by Chas. G. Halpine, has been purchased by a number of wealthy gentlemen of that city. It will remain Democratic.

-F. Shanahan, D. D., was installed on Sun day as Bishop of the new Diocese of Harrisburg, Pa. He was inducted into office by Bishop O'Hara, of Scranton, assisted by six or eight priests. -The Bostonians have discovered a method by which the peculiar and not over pleasant odor of codfish can be extracted from the fish, and people can enjoy cod minus a too highly spiced aroma.

-On the 1st of May excavations were commenced for the foundation of Mr. Stewart's w store in New York, and on the 1st of Noto the public the largest retail dry goods establishment in the world.

-The Baltimore S in says : "Never in the history of Baltimore has there been more rapid progress in building than during the present year. Buildings of almost every description have been springing up in every portion of the offices were distributed Leslie was forgot-

There is a new fashion of petticoats, made District. As "senator." LESLIE has other, and commencing at the waist, exactly in the same manner as kilts are arranged. They are made either of tortan or of a simple white woollen material, and require neither cage nor crincline to be worn beneath them.

-A serious rupture has occurred between Bishop Duggan, of the Catholic diocese of Chicsgo, and some of his clergy. The matter has been referred to Rome for adjustment. In the meantime, Rev. Dr. Dunn, Vicar General of the diocese, Revs. Dr. McGovern, Father Rolles and Dr. McMullen are suspended.

-The Fall River (Mass.) News says that, owing to the continued decline of cotton and cotton goods, and to the fact that the production of print cloths exceeds the demand, and the decline of the price below the actual cost of production, the cotton mills in that city will run but four days a week for the present, stopping Thursday nights for the remainder of -The will of the late Edwin A. Stevens, o New Jersey, bequeaths nearly twenty millions of dollars. Two public school houses in Hobo ken, built at his expense, are bequeathed to that city, and $650,000 for the erection and maintenance of another is donated. The Stevens battery, for the completion of which one million is donated, is to be presented to the State of New Jersey. The rest of the property falls to the widow and children. His entire estate is estimated at from forty to fifty millions of dollars.

-An excellent apparatus for the purpose of informing travellers as to the names of stations, is in use on the cars of the Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain Bailroad. It consists externally of a box, surmounted by a bell, and having a glass plate in front, under which the name of a station appears in letters of about three inches in length; on arrival at the station named on the indicator, the bell on the top of the box rings, and at the same moment the name of the next station on the line appears under the glass plate.

-An immense fire is raging in the woods on both sides of the Columbia River, in Oregon, near the mouth of the Williamette. The fire covers an area of two hundred square miles. and the destruction of property is very great. The towns of St. Helena and Astoria are threatened with destruction by the conflagration. Similar disasters in California have also been reported. A tract of five miles of woods near San Rafael, Marin County, California, is on fire, the smoke from which completely enveloped the harbor and city of San Fran-

-Beast Butler was in New York last Sunday on his way to Washington, and a Herald reporter had an interview with him, which is of interest, as it is probable he will assume the Radical leadership in the House made vacant by the death of Thaddeus Stevens. The Beast thinks that the present session will not devote any time to legislation; that Grant will certainly be elected; that if Seymour shou'd be his Democratic adherents would assassinate him to make room for Blair, and that the New York Democrats do not wish for Seymour's election provided they can carry the State ticket. In regard to General Grant's reported conservatism he has no information. -The editor of the Native Virginian, in late letter from the White Sulphur Springs, could not enter the ball-room without being who were anxious to make his acquaintance. One evening, it so happened that the group around him was composed exclusively of old men, and this of itself attracted all eyes toward him. Just then, a silver-haired old gentleman, much more aged than the rest, drew near the group, and introducing himself to General Lee, grasped his hand, and holding it fast in his own said, with a trembling voice: "General, pardon an old man for telling you the plain truth. I love you better than I' over loved my own father." Overpowered by emotion, General Lee attempted no reply; but his suffused eyes made answer more eloquent than words. Those who witnessed the scene, say that it was one of the most effecting they ever beheld. -The pretext for the note proseque entered in the murder indictment against Surratt was the existence of a difference of opinion among indges and lawvers as to whether constructive presence could implicate a party accused in a murder as principal. Judge Wylie said he approved of the motion made to enter a notle prosequi, for unless there was some newly discovered testimony it would be useless to try the murder indictment a second time. He was now at liberty to say in regard to the motion now made, and in reference to the point upon which the former trial turned, that he was perfeetly clear. It had never been held, as he knew of, in this country or in England, or in any country, he supposed, governed by law, that a man could be guilty of murder unless he was present at the commission of the offence. Entertaining that view, and being of the opinion, also, from the evidence adduced at the former trial, that the prisoner was not present at the time the crime was committed, he very readily consented to a nolle pros. being entered in this case. That indictment having been thus disposed of, on motion of the counsel for the accused the court adjourned, to enable the prisoner to withdraw the plea of not guilty, made to the indictment for conspiracy, and to plead anew.

CHARLESTON.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 24, 1868.

For Prendent HORATIO SEYMOUR. For Vice-President FRANCIS P. BLAIR.

The Suspension of "Senator" Leslie.

The so-called Senate of the State failed to expel "Senator" LESLIE upon the charges brought against him, but has succeeded in suspending him for six menths. It was not not be willing to trust to deductions from alleged that he was guilty of high crimes the proceeds of their produce, to lower and misdemeanors, for the committee which | wages, to higher rents, to relieve them of considered the subject only charged him with contempt, in having refused to obey the orders of one of the officers of the Senate, and in having said: "You may gag me and "rush things through as you please. You selves a ! their families. Excessive taxa-"will be sorry for it." This was said to se | tion will kill trade and put an end to farmthe whole sum and substance of his offend- ing and planting. It will cut off the freeding; but there is not a negro in the Senate | men from all hope of employment, and leave or in the House who does not know that LESLIE'S real crime was widely different, both in gravity and character.

LESLIE hails from Brooklyn, New York, and says that he was once a senator in the Carolina in 1865, and after sundry escapades, was elected a member of the "Consti-"tutional Convention" which assembled in and sharp talker, paying very little regard to the personal feelings of his negro coadjutors, and slashing right and left when any peculiarly large swindle was expected to be hatched. When the State and district city, more particularly on some of the outlying | ten; and his only reward was his election as one of the "senators" from Barnwell keen and incisive in all that he has said. A thorough Radical, he has paradoxically opposed negro supremacy, and upon more than one occasion has declared on the floor of the Senate that even the most intelligent freedmen were wholly incapable of governing either the State or themselves. It was necessary that the weaknesses of the Radical party in the State should not be exposed. No regard was paid to the fact that LESLIE had always acted with the Radicals. There was danger in his honesty and plain talking, and it was determined by the ultra Radical leaders to get rid of him. This has been done, and LESLIE now returns to Barnwell district to explain to white man and negro, Democrat and Radical, why he is expelled, and what are the corruptions, the profligacy and the shame of the wondrous mongrel Legislature of which he was > In suspending LESLIE, the Senate admit, by word of mouth as well as by deed, that they cannot bear the truth. They acknowledge now that free speech will ruin them; forgetting that LESLIE will have upon his side all the Radicals who have been aggrieved because they were passed over in the distribution of spoils; that he has the power and the will, as perhaps no other man has, to uncover all their secrets, and that his party martyrdom will make him more open-mouthed and irrepressible than he ever was before. It is also a ludicrous commentary upon the consistency of Radical politicians that the party which, in this State, professes to be the upholder of the right of free speech, the friend of liberty, and the foe of intimidation and proscription, should deliberately expel or suspend a member of their party because he has been free spoken, because he would not be brow-beat or intimidated, and because threats and menaces could not make him hold his tongue. LESLIE is now a radical enemy of Radicalism. One of the main beams of the edifice will now be used as a ram to batter in its door and tumble its walls to ruin.

The Effect upon the Negro.

The total taxation, State and local, of the District of Georgetown for the coming year, will be at least forty thousand dollars, against thirteen thousand dollars last year; the difference being the result of the legislation of our motley General Assembly. This forty thousand dollars is equal to a tax of eighty dollars upon each white male adult in the district. If there are any defaulters, as there will be, the taxes for the second year must be heavier still, to make up the previous deficiency. We have assumed that the tax must be paid in the first instance by the white citizens of the district, if paid at all, because the negroes writes: When General Lee first came, he have no property and because a poll tax, except for educational purposes, is prohibsurrounded by groups of gentlemen and ladies | ited by the constitution. The freedmen, then, may flatter themselves that the enormous taxation being heaped upon their employers will not affect them; and may, in that way, calm their natural anger at finding that not one of the new or old district offices is filled by a black man. But, in truth, the freedmen are as much interested as the white men are in the economical administration of the resources of the State and its consequence-light taxation. They may have no lands to sell and no money to spend; but they have their labor, and if the absence of demand for that labor brings them to the verge of starvation they have lost all that they had, and, in their degree, have suffered as much as the white man whose thousand acres are sold to satisfy a tax execution.

The negroes who rely on the trade of the towns for their employment must understand that excessive taxation will cause the store doors to be closed, and will drive away men of business to a less favored district. Where, then, will be their means of honestly making a living?

The negroes who work as field or plantation hands receive either a share of the crop or fixed wages. If they receive fixed wages, their wages will be decreased as the taxes are increased, and out of their pockets will come some of the dollars which will support in idleness a swarm of worthless adventurers. If they work on shares, they will also pay their part of the taxes, because the whole taxation of the year will be deducted from the proceeds of the crop before any division of profits is made. Where, then, does the negro derive anything but loss from this taxing abomination?

The negro who wishes to rent land is also taxed. There is no capitation tax, no tax on property; but the owner of the land cannot afford to take less rent than will pay the taxes on the land and give him some profit besides. So that the negro in paying a higher rent pays his share of taxation. Will not the negro, then, be working every day in the year to make up for the extravagance and ignorance of his brethren in Columbia ?

But this is not the worst. The white people of the State will have no vigor and energy while they are threatened with s crushing weight of taxation. They will the load. They will be tempted to give up business, to allow their farms to be uncultivated, to desist from doing one iota more than is requisite to barely support themthem no future but misery and famine.

As long as this State is ruled by ignorant blacks and rascally whites, there will be nothing but wanton extravagance and unparalleled taxation. Under such a system New York Legislature. He came to South the thieving, lying negro may live and grow fat, but the honest and diligent freedmen will pine and perish.

Trustees—The Bishops of North (arolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alaoama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Texas and Arkansse ex officee, and one Clerical and two Lay Trustees from each of said Dioce-es.

The Board of Trustees of the University announce that they will open the Junior Department at University Place, on Wedne-day, the 16th day of September next, under General J. GORGA*, of Alabana, as Head Misster, a distinguished graduate of West Point, very highly recommended by General Lee and other leading men of the country.

Desiring to make the School simply self-sustaining, the Trustees have fixed upon the sum of $360 per year to cover the entire charges, except matriculation fee ($10) and medical attendance. Students will be required to furnish their own sheets, pillows, casce and towels. Payment will be required semi-annually in advance.

The first term will close December 15, and the School will reopen, after the Christmas vacation, on the 10th day of February revalence we see incoder.

School will reopen, after the Christmas vacation, on the 10th day of February, remaining in session dur-ing the summer except a short recess. Communications in reference to the School should be addressed to GEO. R. FAIRBANKS, EEq., Treasurer of the University, University Face, County, Tennessee.
The location of the University on the beautiful and salubrious plateau of the Cumberland Mountains is too well known to require description.
Persons coming to University Place change cars at Cowan Station, Nashville and Chattanooga Raliroad, and take the cars of the Tennessee Coal Company to University Station (9 miles) on the University domain.

THE LAKE CITY PRESS, PUBLISHED at Lake City. Florida, enjoys the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the State. It is circulated principally in those counties in East Florida, from which the merchants of charleston get the most trade, but seur to nearly every Postoffice in the State. It is decidedly a white man's paper, which, together with its extensive circulation, makes it a most desirable advertising me dum for the merchants of Charleston, who wisa to encourage Florida trade.
